Courtesy Bus

Barooga Sports Club operates a free courtesy bus service within the township areas of Cobram and Barooga. Travel outside the restrictions of Cobram-Barooga township is not available as part of regular services and is only available as part of a pre-authorised paid function package*.

Please contact Club Reception on (03) 5873 4448 to confirm times and pick up details.
Our courtesy bus service is free for all members and guests*.

The courtesy bus is not suitable for children in capsules, or of any size that cannot sit safely within normal seatbelt operations or that require booster seats. To be able to travel on the bus children must be at least 7 years old and a recommended minimum height of 145cm or taller.
The courtesy bus will accommodate up to 11 persons in standard seating.

While we aim to pick you up as soon as possible, please note that pick-up times may vary based on demand and availability. Rest assured we will get to you as soon as we can.
Courtesy bus departs the Club every hour on the hour commencing from 7AM* daily until Close.
Please make bookings for pickup at least 45 minutes prior to pick up time.

Courtesy bus operations are provided as a means to reduce drinking and driving behaviours.
Use of the courtesy bus is contingent on the appropriate behaviour of persons onboard. If the persons onboard pose any form of physical or otherwise threat or misbehaviours, they may be asked to depart the vehicle. The consumption of food or beverages on the courtesy bus is strictly prohibited.
All courtesy busses operate internal and external video cameras for your safety.
